

WNTC Sponsors Booster Dance

Campus Station WNTC will sponsor the first event on its Fall 1948 booster program. The affair will be a Sadie Hawkins Day stag dance held at the Potsdam Civic Center, and featuring music by three well-known North Country orchestras, Don Gero, the Pastels, and the Varsity. These three organizations will supply continuous music from nine until the dance's end at twelve-thirty.

Admission to the dance will be by booster ticket only. These tickets may be obtained from any member of the station and will be on sale at the box office on the night of the dance for one dollar. These tickets will also entitle the bearers to admission to all other events on the Fall Booster Program. Charles Mueller, chairman of the dance, expects to earn enough money through the sale of booster tickets to construct the necessary heating unit for the station. Aiding to gain this goal are the three orchestras, all of whom are donating their services through the courtesy of the Musicians' Association, Local 734, A.F.M.

Assisting Mueller in completing successful plans for this benefit dance have been Bill Brady and Dick March, handling the Publicity and Decorations, as well as their many capable assistants, Chris Ott, Bernie Banker, Mary Ann Floegel, Sally Lizette, Milly Johns, Louise Gotti, Virginia Paine, Frances Coles, Chester Kondel, Fred Lattanzi, Larry Benson, Larry Doyle, Thomas Weatherup, Ken Smith, Jack Melrose, Dick Merwin, Don Avarick, Jack LaPietra, Vaughn Weidel, Dave VanBork, McGowan, Toma, and Winnie.

Six Special Programs Presented Over WNTC

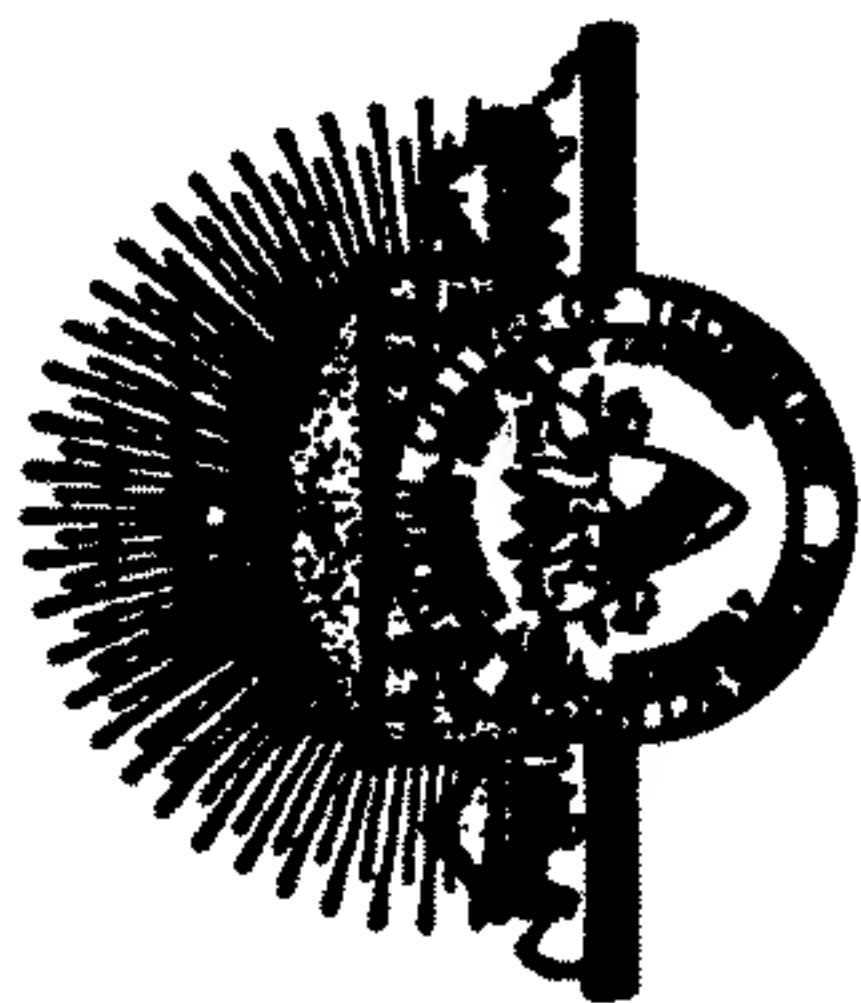

Six special programs were broadcast this week over Campus Station WNTC in celebration of American Education Week from November 7-13. The series of broadcasts were prepared by the faculty members and pupils of the Congdon Campus School and members of the Radio Workshop department of Station WNTC.

Last Friday night the first of the broadcasts was presented at 8:15, when Miss Janet Wenk, a senior at Potsdam State Teachers College, interviewed students of the Campus School, representing grades from kindergarten through eight.

Monday evening at 8:30 p.m., eighth graders under the direction of Mrs. Iva Wright, presented a skit entitled "Ready to Go." Also that evening at 9:00 p.m., the station featured a recording based on the general theme of the week called "There Were Voices in the Land."

Tuesday at 9:30 p.m., eighth grade pupils of the Campus School, together with the school chorus and boys' glee club, presented a musical skit, "Little Red Schoolhouse." At 8:55 p.m., the WNTC Radio Workshop directed by Miss Marguerite Mahoney and Eugene Mueller, presented the skit, "Which Way is Forward?" based on the daily topic, improving the educational program.

The workshop presented its final broadcast of the series Thursday evening at 8:55, when a five-minute skit entitled "Does It Pay to be Ignorant?" was rendered.
